HYMNS

“All Glory, Laud, and Honor” Theodulph of Orleans (9th Century)

1- All glory, laud, and honor to you, O Christ, we sing, to whom the lips of children made sweet hosannas ring! The people of the Hebrews with palms adorned your way; our praise and prayer and anthems we offer you this day.

2- O Promised One of Israel, of David’s royal line, the one called “God’s beloved,” of flesh and yet divine, to you, before your passion, they sang their hymns of praise; to you, now high exalted, our melody we raise.

3- As you received their praises, receive our prayers today, whose justice and whose mercy and sovereignty hold sway. All glory, laud, and honor to you, O Christ, we sing, to whom the lips of children made sweet hosannas ring!

“Ride On! Ride On in Majesty” by Henry H. Milman

1- Ride on! Ride on in majesty! O Christ, with brave humility, on lowly colt, your road pursue, as palms and cloaks are spread for you.

2- Ride on! Ride on in majesty! As crowds of people come to see and shout hosannas, lifting high their praise for one about to die.

3- Ride on! Ride on in majesty! Ride on in humble dignity; behold the ones you came to save from senseless life and endless grave.

4- Ride on! Ride on in majesty! For you have set your people free and we, remembering all your pain, now meet again to hail your reign.

“Ah, Holy Jesus” By Johann Heermann

1- Ah, holy Jesus, how have you offended, that mortal judgment has on you descended? By foes derided, by your own rejected, O most afflicted!

2- Who was the guilty? Who brought this up on you? It is my treason, Jesus, that has slain you. And I, dear Jesus, I it was denied you; I crucified you.

3- For me, kind Jesus, was your incarnation, your mortal sorrow, and your life’s oblation, your death of anguish and your bitter passion, for my salvation.

4- Therefore, kind Jesus, since I cannot pay you, I do adore you, and will ever pray you, think on your pity and your love unswerving, not my deserving.

“O Sacred Head, Now Wounded” Transl. James W. Alexaner

1- O sacred Head, now wounded, with grief and shame weighed down, now scornfully surround with thorns, your only crown, how pale you are with anguish, with sore abuse and scorn! How does your visage languish which once was bright as morn!

2- What you, dear Savior, suffered was all for sinners’ gain; mine, mine was the transgression, but yours the deadly pain. Lo, here I fall, my Savior, for I deserve your place; look on me with your favor, O grant to me your grace.

3- What language shall I borrow to thank you, dearest friend; for this your dying sorrow, your pity without end? May I be yours forever; and though my days be few, O Savior, let me never outlive my love for you!
