HYMNS & SONGS

“Lift Every Voice and Sing” James Weldon Johnson

1- Lift every voice and sing, till earth and heaven ring, ring with the harmonies of liberty; Let our rejoicing rise, high as the listening skies, let it resound loud as the rolling sea. Sing a song full of the faith that the harsh past has taught us, sing a song full of the hope that the present has brought us; facing the rising sun of our new day begun, let us march on till victory is won.

2- Stony the road we trod, bitter the chastening rod, felt in the days when hope unborn had died; yet with a steady beat, have not our weary feet, come to the place for which our people sighed? We have come over a way that with tears has been watered, we have come, treading our path through the blood of the slaughtered, out from the gloomy past, till now we stand at last where the white gleam of our bright star is cast.

3- God of our weary years, God of our silent tears, God who has brought us thus far on the way; God, who by your might, led us into the light, keep us forever in the path, we pray. Lest our feet stray from the places, our God, where we met you, lest our hearts, drunk with the wind of the world, forget you; shadowed beneath your hand, may we forever stand, true to our God, true to our native land.

“I Will Trust in the Lord” African-American Traditional

1- I will trust in the Lord, I will trust in the Lord, I will trust in the Lord, till I die. I will trust in the Lord, I will trust in the Lord, I will trust in the Lord, till I die.

HYMNS & SONGS

“We Shall Overcome ” United States Traditional

1- We shall overcome, we shall overcome, we shall overcome some day; oh, deep in my heart, I do believe, we shall overcome some day.

2- We'll go hand in hand, we'll go hand in hand, we'll go hand in hand some day; Oh, deep in my heart, I do believe, we'll go hand in hand some day.

3- We are not afraid, we are not afraid, we are not afraid today; Oh, deep in my heart, I do believe, we are not afraid today.

4- Our God will see us through, our God will see us through, our God will see us through some day; Oh, deep in my heart, I do believe, our God will see us through some day.

5- The truth shall make us free, the truth shall make us free, the truth shall make us free some day; Oh, deep in my heart, I do believe, the truth shall make us free some day.

6- We shall live in peace, we shall live in peace, we shall live in peace some day; Oh, deep in my heart, I do believe, we shall live in peace some day.

FEBRUARY M.O.M.

CWS BLANKETS

A seat at The Master's Table

Have you ever experienced a time when you felt invisible, insignificant or forgotten? That feeling is a daily reality for so many.

One church in Galveston, Texas is working to change that reality. And they're doing it one person, one seat and one table at a time.

Four years ago, God's Kingdom and Restoration Ministries began "The Master's Table," a ministry focused on helping people who are facing hard times. "It was always our vision to feed the needy, feed the working poor, feed the homeless," said Shirley Thomas, co-pastor at the church.

Guests entering the church are taken to The Master's Table, to sit and enjoy a home-cooked meal. But a seat at this table isn't just about the food. CWS Blankets, and simple hand-assembled hygiene kits, provided by CWS Blankets supporters, help visitors feel comforted. The genuine fellowship they feel around the table helps them feel seen. "We want them to know that God hasn't forgotten them," says Thomas.

People leave the table with hope, knowing they are loved by God and by compassionate donors like you.

Because of you, ministries like The Master's Table have essential resources and a seat at the table for everyone to feel God's presence and abounding love.

Hope is powerful, especially in times like these. Will you answer the call to serve God's people and increase hope? Donate today.
